

COLLEGIAN '89

Faculty

pg.8

Here's a revealing look at the men and women who mentally and physically shape the generations to come. Whether you like them, dislike them or just don't care, here they are, the faculty and staff of Vancouver College for '88-'89.

Graduates

pg.30

What can we say? Here you'll find the graduates of 1989 - in living color! Get up close and personal with V.C.'s finest and discover what their futures may hold in store as they leave our hallowed halls.

High School

pg.50

Find out what makes these guys tick. See the jocks, the spoeks, and all the rest. From gridiron to grammar; from layups to labs see the high school live it up - VC style!

Middle School

pg.72

1988-89 marked the first year of the Middle School. Students in grades 7, 8, and 9 took on a new role as a dynamic and cohesive entity within the Vancouver College community.

Elementary

pg.98

Big things come in little packages, and this is most evident in our elementary. They are a creative, funloving and energetic bunch of young men. Check them out on these pages.

A Little Color

pg.112

This section of the yearbook explores the more candid and artistic side of V.C. students. Let your fingers do the walking and the pages will do the talking.

Sports

pg.144

This year wasn't our best year for sports but it wasn't our worst. The FIGHTING IRISH SPIRIT still raged on in the fans and in the players.

Organizations

pg.178

Here are the students who stay past three o'clock and get more out of school than just a head full of facts. These individuals make up the organizations that give our school its dynamic quality.

Special Events

pg.190

How to make a special event: just add a thousand students, two thousand parents, a dedicated faculty, then add a handful of brothers, some hard work and a little Irish Luck.

Friends

pg.204

Take a look at the vast array of Collegian Supporters. It's informative, interesting, and who knows . . . you might even find the odd surprise.

THE VANCOUVER COLLEGE COLLEGIAN

*D*ear Customer,

You are now 1 of the 450 proud owners of a really, really, nice, special, limited edition, leather bound, deluxe, finely crafted, silver embossed Yearbook. This publication is made from the finest ink from India, Corinthian leather from Italy, and printed on the highest grade double-weight, super glossy stock made in Canada.

Between these covers lie the pictures and prose that will evoke vivid memories and the past school year strategically assembled to revive the deepest feelings from your inner-most being.

If you were stranded on a desert island, we are sure that this would be one of the things that you would find vital for survival, next to the cow group, the sandwich group, the jungle group, and the Butterfinger group.

This book is something for you to have and to hold, to love and to cherish, in sickness and in health, for richer or for poorer, until death do you part. It's something that will be treasured forever and ever as a family heirloom passed on from generation to generation.

If within 30 days you are not completely satisfied with this publication . . . You cannot return for a full refund, no questions asked, so . . .

TOUGH COOKIES!!!

Published by the super cool dudes who have through their extraneous efforts about and beyond the call of duty, have produced this superior quality, annual.

A MUSICAL LEGEND . . .

MR. GORDON OLSON

In 1947, Vancouver College took in a man who eventually was going to be one of the greatest teachers in the school.

Mr. Gordon Olson began his career as a music teacher in 1947, but worked on a part-time basis. It was in 1979 that Mr. Olson became an official staff member; although he left V.C. in 1962-64 to study under Irwin Hoffman, who was an associate conductor with the V.S.O.

Mr. Olson will be leaving the school with his hopes fulfilled as his Stage Band entered the National for the third time in four years. The latest success of the band was their outstanding achievement of the gold award in Kelowna, which in turn earned them the invitation to the Nationals in Toronto, Ontario.

We wish the band good luck, especially Mr. Olson. We will keep him in our prayers as he leaves on a musical note, and as a musical legend.

IN MEMORY OF BR. BATES

BR. JAMES C. BATES, PH.D.

Brother Bates, a native of Halifax, Nova Scotia, first came to V.C. as principal in 1954. He served in this position until 1960 when he was appointed principal of Brother Rice High School in Chicago. When the Canadian Province of the Christian Brothers was established in 1963, he was appointed to the Provincial Council and stationed at the Brother's headquarters in Montreal. In 1966, he returned to Vancouver as Superintendent of Schools for the Archdiocese. After resigning this position in 1971, he rejoined the College faculty as teacher of Religion and French. In 1975 when Brother Bucher was assigned to Rome at the end of his term of office, Brother Bates was named principal of V.C. for the second time.

OUR MESSAGES

BLOOD,

Mark V. Mogatas

The first question that I ask myself at ten o'clock on a school night after a long morning and a hard day at school with two tonnes of homework in my bag, while sitting in the YB room is, "Why me?"

About one year ago I received a letter asking me to come to the Shawnigan Lake Annual Camp. Those four days that I spent up at that camp were some of the best days in my life. I thought, "Well if this is what Yearbook is all about, then let's do it!" So Scott, Rob and I walked into the school full of enthusiasm and determination.

Months flew by and so did my staff. By the time January had come I was left with a very small core group. The enthusiasm and the excitement quickly fizzled out and pressure hit like a mountain side. I soon found Scott and myself alone in the school until the wee hours of the night.

When April came around I slowly began to realize that other schools were finishing their 120 page book and that I still had a long way to go with our 224 page monster book. Pictures were rapidly disappearing, pressure rising, insanity drawing closer and money we never had was being spent! I couldn't take it! My mind was about to explode.

Until that wonderful day came. The last page was sent in. We were finally free. "aaahh". I felt as though this incredible burden was lifted from my shoulders. I could feel my brain return to its normal size.

I would like to give special thanks to Scott for mellowing me out when I needed it most, to Mr. McKay for preventing me from dropping into an eternal pit of insanity, Mr. Shea, Mr. Adams and Mrs. Russel for listening to my whining and whimpering. My parents for not kicking me out of the house because of my psychotic behaviour and to a very special friend who gave me that little recharge of confidence whenever I needed it most, Thux Nik!

SWEAT,

Scott Classen

Yearbook was hell. It was a nightmare, a horror story, a genuine Stephen King thriller. There were lots of brains splattered all over the place, piles of guts dripping down the walls. People would be running around with the paper cutter hacking away at everything that was in sight. Chaos and corruption became a way of life. People would enter the so called darkroom, never to return. Others would attempt completing layouts only to become mentally insane. Photographers who were once nice people became bloodthirsty psychopathic headbanging punkrockers attacking innocent victims who would become blinded and permanently placed on a little piece of plastic called a negative. Something strange came over these so called yearbook people. Maybe it was something in the chemicals, or that funny stuff that grew in the garbage can, or maybe it was their mean and cruel slavedriving editor. Whatever it was it caused the staff to abandon Mark and Scott about one month into the year. "The weather started getting rough the tiny (actually it was really BIG) book was tossed, if not for the courage of the fearless crew the Yearbook would be lost, the Yearbook would be lost, Scott and Mark set ground the next day on an uncharged desert isle." and there they stayed for the rest of their lives drinking tropical beverages, catching rays, and vegging out.

T.S. Elliot, in his great poem the "Wasteland", said that 'April is the cruellest month.' These words have a special meaning for those of us working on the Collegian since each April brings with it the inevitable FINAL YEARBOOK DEADLINE. For the rest of the world, spring is a time of renewal. Students are restless to get outdoors and soak up the sun after the long grey months of winter. But for us yearbook staffers, spring is a time of infinite finality. We are working against the clock with the only reward being the satisfaction of finishing on time. Or, perhaps just finishing will be reward enough. Yearbook is unlike other school activities. There's no competitions, or tournaments, or championships to be won. There's not much in the way of glory or recognition. There is, however, tremendous responsibility to produce something everybody wants and expects but has very little understanding of. Why do students like the ones you'll see in this book take on such a responsibility? Ask them if you get the chance although I doubt they'll be able to explain. Perhaps the only way to really understand is to accept the challenge yourself.

A NOTE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Brother Farrell

The Catholic philosophy of education considers education to be extensive as human life itself, and recognizes the rights and responsibilities of the family, the church, society and the school in guiding youth to self-fulfillment. Commitment must be made to the spiritual, ethical, intellectual, emotional, social and physical integration of the individual into the complete person.

Vancouver College's success is tied to the extent to which it adequately addresses these diverse goals. Students should measure their personal achievement according to the degree to which they have taken advantage of the opportunities provided to grow and develop in these areas.

Each school year brings its successes and failures, its joys and sorrows, its high and lows. Learning to deal with these is one of the most important lessons in education. Learning to intergrate the lessons into a healthy perspective on life is at the heart and soul of the Catholic education.

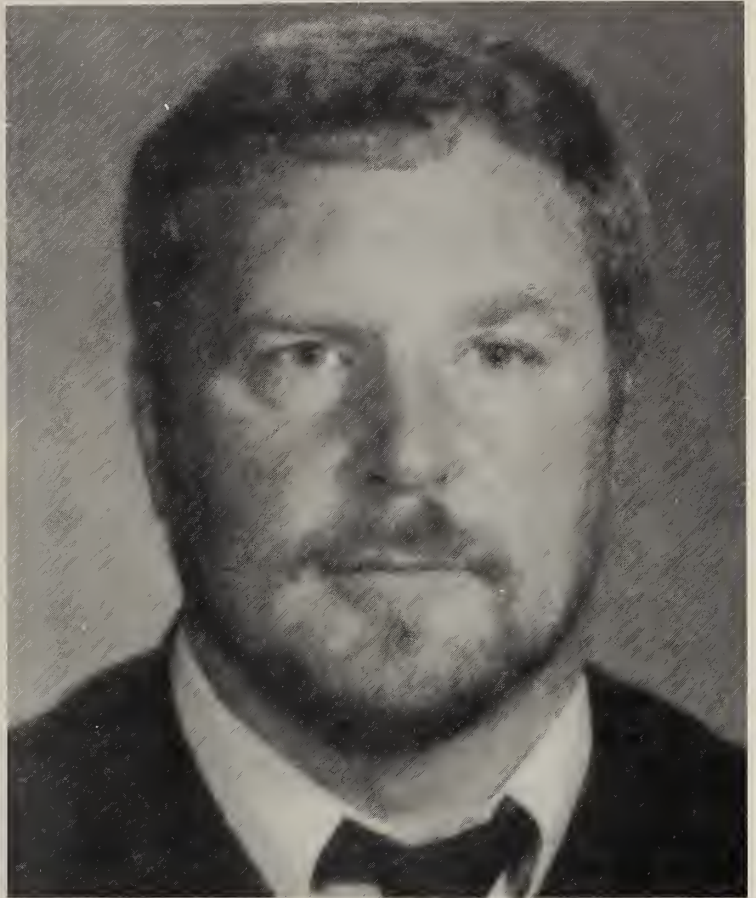

Jesus Christ is there for us as the greatest teacher. Learning to reach out to Him, through those around us, is what a Christian community is about. Hopefully those of you who are graduating have experienced something of that community in yours at Vancouver College. Hopefully those of you returning in September will continue to grow in the experience.

GRADUATES

THAT WAS THEN . . .

Here we are. Twelve years ago, twenty-two of us entered VC having no grasped of what our future entailed. Wide eyed and ready to strive for excellence, we became part of the tradition.

And then there were eight; Vincent Danielsen, Bogdan Floresco, Matthew Gregory, Iain Macfarlane, Mark Mogatas Niall Murphy, Ryan Mulhern & Marco Oballa. We were the Only ones to survive the journey.

Throughout the twelve years, we have all experienced our share of joy and turmoil and through our perseverance we endured it all. Each of us contributed to part of the tradition of the Fighting Irish with our natural talents for athletics, academics, leadership and partying. Our twelve years cannot be summed up in these few words; we can only hope that the disciplines we have mastered at VC will aid us in the new challenges we will encounter.

Vince, Bogy, Matt, Iain, Mark, Niall, Ryan, & Marco; all of us, (well most of us, anyway . . .) wish to thank the teachers and brothers at VC for their guidance, and our parents for being patient with our marks, fronting the $20,000 tuition (instead of buying a new car), buying school supplies each September, and their love.

We wish the best to all grad '89 and with a sigh, we can finally say, "We're Outa Here!!!"

THIS IS NOW . . .

Vince Danielsen

"Vinny" is the last of three brothers to make the long journey from the "East". Throughout his stay, Vince has been very active in the Athletic Program, competing in football, basketball, soccer, and track while being a proud member of the Letterman's Association. Vince hopes to pursue a career in football. He would like to thank the Christian Brothers, coaches, and all the staff for making his stay enjoyable. Especially the B.N.B. and C.M. for sticking it out with him during the "Big Chase". Vince was proud to be part of the spirit of the "I" (Col 3:23)

Mark Victor Mogatas

Mark served his twelve years at this institution well. He has kept his record clean, his tie straight and his body intact. Many memories have been made and friends have come and gone as they always do. Future aspirations include living the life of Indiana Jones, marrying a rich goddess, or going to U.B.C. sciences and living the unknown future. Mark will miss VC although he never really left. Thanks Dad! Viva Muchachos!!

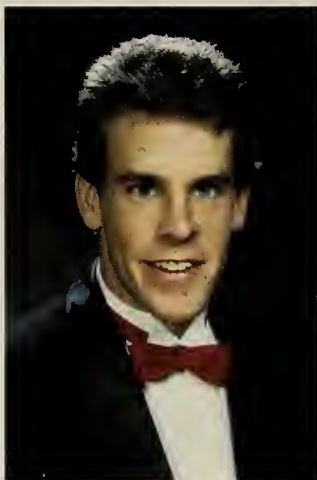

Bogdan Floresco

In 1977 the "Bogey-Man" came, saw, stayed, and now, is leaving. "Bogey" has had fun wrestling, swimming, and laughing along with teachers. "Bogus" plans to go to U.B.C. or become a superhero and be famous. He likes making funny noises, giving headbutts, working out, and writing rhymes. Boge hopes to one day build the body he wants, bench 300, and meet a girl who is nice. Bogdan thanks his pals, Waungus, C.D., B.L., and Double A & his parents for beating sense into him.

Ryan John Mulhern

"Muggsy" as I am referred to by many, is derived from the baby-faced gangster who specializes in deceit and doing everything the easy way. This seems to symbolize my 12 unforgettable years at V.C. During my stay I have participated in soccer, basketball, and golf, both in elementary and high school. I credit my survival to my many friends and teachers who I thank greatly. My future plans are either to attend University in the U.S., or move to Jamaica and harvest a large sugar cane crop while living off the land. Best of luck to the grads of '89. If a man desires the sun, the beauty of woman, and all other fruits of life: let him enjoy.

Matthew Leo Gregory

Matt is one of the few illustrious 12-year men. During his time at V.C. he has been actively involved in both football and the lettermen's assoc.. He has had fun through the years and became a true wildman in grade 11. Matthew hopes to attend U.B.C. take commerce and continue to live a life of wealth and luxury. Matt would like to thank his parents for all their support through the years and his friends for all the good times and the many memories he takes with him.

Niall Murphy

Niall was not one of the most studious of his classmates, but he achieved his only academic goal, Graduation. His fondest memories of his school career occurred outside of the college, from skiing at Whistler to mid-week luncheon specials. His plans for the future include driving through South America in his Window Van, before joining the peace corps. "Stay Real"

Iain Macfarlane

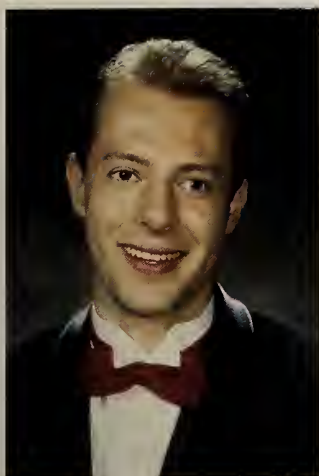

Iain, disappointed when the person he supported for president of the student body didn't win, was known for many things during his stay. Things such as: high-sticking, worshipping, finesse in soccer, laying bets, educating teachers, offering wise words to friends, sarcastic remarks, pursuing Olympic dreams, peeing off walls, fixing tanks with Roth, and basic hamster braining. In fact he hopes to pursue a career in one of these skills. He'd like to say to all his friends, numerous as they are, "you guys are the neatest".

Marco Oballa

Marco has finally finished his 12 long years at V.C., and he almost enjoyed it. During his stay, Marco was often found in the office with G.R., M.C. and S.E., trying to find a good excuse for being late. In his mind still linger fond memories of Walkathons, Irish games, skiing activities, and work detail. After Graduation, Marco plans to attend the faculty of science at U.B.C. and he would like to wish the best of luck to all the grads of '89.

Roger Agyagos

Roger Agyagos has attended V.C. since grade 8 and has been an essential part of V.C. life in all aspects. Roger in his senior year has devoted all his time to both school work and soccer for N.S. Kokanee. Roger would like to go onto higher education, and possibly one day open up his own business. Special thanks to girlfriend KARIN F. for all the love and support through the years 87-89. Thanks and good luck to friends N.B., B.P., M.S., & Colin M.

Marcus Herman Baca

Marc has been coming to V.C. for 5 years and almost liked it. After moving from the U.S. He was quick to become an avid member of the Wrestling program, and received his Varsity letter in grade 11 for placing in the Provincial Championships. Marc has also been an active supporter of the football program. Marc plans to move into the field of Architecture at ASU and hopes to fulfill his dream of winning gold at the 92 Olympics. The best of the luck to all the grads of 89.

Robin Apel

When I arrived in grade eight, I did not want to stay. All I could think about was getting out. But now, I look back and see all my friends and all the good times we had, I can't help thinking to myself, "I'm glad I stayed". Special thanks to M.B. DJ T.I. F.E. T.A. S.S.. I wish you only the best.

Nabil Baouya

"Nabs" been crawling from Dichmond for years and enjoyed imprisonment at V.C. Thanks to Mrs. Small and the office for their hospitality during pitstops. Thanks Mum and Dad for unconditional support, "the pit", Kraft, Roach, Davies, R.B. (stud), D.S?, S.S., J.W. and R.H. for being there, and L.B. (big hug bud!). "Nabs" destination: The boulevard of broken dreams to ride with James Dean or become a shrink. '89 holds a place in my heart forever . . .

Ronald Albert Apel Jr.

When we all gathered together here at V.C. we are not just coming together to learn designated facts but a gathering of friends. I may not always remember what I've learned but it's my friends I'll never forget. Good luck and special thanks to all my friends for all the times, good and bad.

Dennis Boyle

Seeya! Dennis enjoyed his five years at V.C. He participated in soccer, swimming and the social committee. Dennis would like to thank M.P. A.H. S.L. and A.S. Memories include U2, INXS, "You dirty dog!", H.J. parties, U. Ball at Kits, and skiing, (thanks C.H. you're the greatest!) D.B. plans to visit Squaw Valley for W. Millers next flick, or pursue a possible art career. We'd like to thank his parents for their support. Thank you Vancouver College.

Ian Archer

Ian has been SPACETRUCKING from the far reaches of the universe (Richmond and White-rock) to V.C. since grade 6. He has many fond memories of his stay. He would like to thank, the faculty, his family and his friends for making his sentence more enjoyable. He would like to wish the best of luck to all the grads in the future. "Pat, Shaun, where are we going for lunch?" "Hey we made it!" "Rock out, but roll on!!!"

David James Brisco

Dave Brisco has been a student at Vancouver College for six years, beginning his sentence with Mr. MacCormack in grade seven. He has been actively involved with the Fighting Irish football squad since grade 8 and had a great time in grade 10 playing Notre Dame at the B.C.'s. Dave has also played trumpet in the stage band for Gordie from grades eight to ten with C.H. and K.D. Dave is sad to leave V.C. as he looks forward to a great time at U.B.C. and a degree in something biological.

Ian Burns

Ian emerged from Surrey from grade seven at V.C. and he looks back with fondness at five of the least benightedly vague years of his life. He intends to spend at least one year after graduation sampling the world and reveling in the intensity of existence - perhaps in Rio. He looks forward to spending another quarter of his life in university as he aspires towards medicine where he hopes to bury himself in female anatomy and become a wealthy gynecologist. He hopes that his epitaph will read "Died happily at 280 mph."

William Daniel Burrows

Bill came to V.C. six years ago. Since then he has been involved in the athletic dept, basketball, and served on the lettermen's executive in his senior year. Memories include the B-ball Championships at the Agrodome, the B-ball San Diego trip, and Calculus with Mr. Freire. Bill's future plans include studying education at U.B.C. Bill would like to thank his parents and grandparents for the years and future years of advice and encouragement. Best of LUCK TO THE GRADS OF '89 and all future Grads of V.C.

Jason Calla

Jason came to V.C. in grade 7 from the hills of North Vancouver. Much of the time Jason can be found on the ice preparing for a career in the world of professional hockey (and for a six figured salary). Failing this however he would like to attend U.B.C. and study in the Faculty of Commerce. Jason would like to thank the brothers and staff at V.C. and especially his parents and family for their love and support.

Giacomo C. Cassano

Giacomo has been coming to Vancouver College for the last five years from his home on Cambie Street (not East Van.). When not listening to his C.D.s, Giacomo can be found with C.O. offering people free constructive criticism. Future plans include playing professional soccer for Juventus in the Italian League or marrying a rich woman. "Imagination is more important than knowledge." - Albert Einstein (Core of B.M.)

Dominic Chibber

I'd like to say bye/hi to all the pals and gals I've met in my high school years. I know, I directed that to the girls outside of our school. Boy, these past years were great (not the best), but great. There were parties, dances, pre-grads, etc, and school. Well of course school! I can't forget the teachers. So now I'd like to say see ya later to: the Amigos, Tang-Mobile, Smmul, Joe Burto, Cause + Solution, A.P. - Beemer, Leo, Scam'm Jam'n, Todd, Rico, the Punks, everyone else, & I.D.D.F.C.

Myke Clark

Myke came to V.C. in grade eight from the wilderness of North Van. Memorable moments include being late with G.R., M.O. and S.E.; losin' it while skiing (I live where?!); and the first six (seven?) Religion 12 classes. Future plans include checking out D.B. in the newest Warren Miller flick, as well as entering UBC in the field of Law or Commerce. Myke would especially like to thank his parents for their constant support.

Scott Classen

School was cool, but the weekends were better. The end of every week brought times and memories never to be forgotten. The best times were those spent with P.M., P.F., N.M., Led Zep, P.N. and his micra, A.O., M.M., M.P., chips at lunch, J.M. and the DOORS of perception, raise the roof, U2, and all the partying dudes at VC. Plans for the future include a college education, living on a sailboat, and maybe joining the Peace Corps. Scott would like to thank his family. And to the grads, may you someday "break on through to the other side.", wherever that may be. Good Luck, Amen, The END.

M. Shaun Davies

Shaun came to V.C. in grade 7 without a clue as to what was going to happen to him. He thanks Mr. Burke for his helpful guidance and teaching during his young and rebellious years at the college. Grades 10-12 friends knew him for his unique cars or "beaters". Though he did have one real car. Well known statement "I flipped my car at 240 km/h." This was a minor setback for him but at least he's realized there are more important things than fast cars. Shaun intends to continue his education either at U.B.C. or S.F.U.

Rod de Albuquerque

Rodrigo, or better known as "chico", entered these hallowed halls of V.C. in the seventh grade from the popular area of East Van. During his stay he has participated immensely in every aspect of school life from playing football to being a privileged Fighting Irish basketball fan. He was also a member of the elite Lettermens Association Committee, in his final year. He will never forget his many "blue boat" voyages with his amigos. He would like to thank all of the V.C. staff and his parents for putting up with him and wishes the best of luck to all the V.C. grads of '89.

Edward dela Luna

Ed or Big Ed as he was known in V.C., has attended the school since Grade 10. He transferred to V.C. from the Seminary of Christ the King in Mission, B.C. (even though he had been living in Vancouver). He played guitar for the school Masses. He will miss all his friends and teachers. Good Luck to the coming years. VENI, VIDI, VICI.

Christian Edward Delos Santos

Christian has been attending V.C. since grade 8. During his five year stay he has participated in many school activities such as the Yearbook, Chorus, and helping in the Bookroom. After graduation, Christian plans to attend UBC or SFU to further his education in Commerce and perhaps in Computer Science. He would like to thank his parents, all his teachers, and friends for their years of support. The best of luck to the Grads of '89.

Mike Devine

Mike was sentenced to College life in grade 7 from Canyon Heights school in the very mountainous region of North Vancouver. While at V.C. Mike participated in football from grade 8 through 12 and was also a member of the first J.V. provincial championship team. If not playing football, Mike could be found cheering for the Irish at many of the basketball games or trying to scrounge rides home. Good times include S.V., Whistler, Montgomery (with S.J., B.N.B., C.M. and B.R) and cheering in the Agrodome. A special thanks to my parents and all the teachers that helped me for all these years. Good luck to the grads of '89!

Michael William Dewit

The past eight years have seen Mike work through his way through V.C. He would like to thank his parents, friends, and most of his teachers for their often unheeded advice. Good memories over the years have been Expo, Yearbook 1986, Accounting 11 with Bug, being overly hard on his car, and times spent in late '88.

Robert Doyle

Robert has tormented the halls of V.C. for six years. He stayed in close contact with the activities out of school, being a participant in intramurals, rowing, and the yearbook. He enjoyed the atmosphere that existed during school functions. Robert plans to take criminology at S.F.U. and then take life one step at a time.

Kenneth Douglas Durlacher

Ken came to VC in grade 2 but left and returned later in grade 8. He enjoyed the school life but never got to be involved until grade 10 when Mr. Canil roped him into playing football. Winning the provincial championship that year, he became a letterman and school life took a turn. There was more meaning in being part of the Vancouver College student body. Thank you to teachers and students who made his stay pleasant and rewarding.

Mark Duynstee

The bus has been his transportation through out the past 6 years. He has enjoyed his stay at V.C. and hopes to see his fellow students in the future. He plans to go to University and enter into either Law or Business and after accomplishing that he'll maybe try and conquer the world. "We've had Goodtimes" - David Lee Roth

Stephen Eivemark

Steve Eivemark came to V.C. in grade 7 from Holy Trinity in sunny North Vancouver. His favorite memories include being in the '88 walkathon, cheering at games, dances and especially those early morning bus rides. Steve is looking forward to the Grad celebrations and the following summer. In the future he plans to attend U.B.C.. After that anything is possible.

Andrew Goodison

Andrew is an English born Canadian who has spent four years at Vancouver College. After playing both soccer and rowing for the school he still can't figure why a manager can get a letter and people playing minor sports can't. Fond memories include watching the Mexican and William swim back to the dock after sinking the double skull.

Brian Filippin

Flip has been bussing in from Burnaby to raise hell at V.C. for five years and thanks those who put up with him during his formative years (grades eight to eleven). Pukey also thanks all his grad class buddies (especially Chuck and Reth), Mrs. Small, mommy and daddy for all those good times. He hopes nobody ends up like those boaters this summer; "with enough beer but not enough gas."

Jonathan R. Gray

Grade 8 was Jonathan's first year at Vancouver College. He has contributed to the basketball and football programs at all levels: his presence on the basketball court and football field will be remembered by those who were exposed to it. Jonathan wishes to express his gratitude to the teachers and atmosphere of Vancouver College that have formed his person. Remember the Mongolians. "Does not wisdom call, and understanding raise her voice? On the top of heights, along the road, at the crossroads she takes her stand." (Proverbs 8: 1-2)

Kenneth Christopher Frith

Ken has been travelling to V.C. from the outer reaches in West Vancouver. Since his arrival in grade 7, he has participated on the basketball team (a brief stint in grade 7) and on the senior tennis team. Most of Ken's time has been devoted to ski racing for the W.M.S.C. during weekends in the winter season. Kenneth would like to thank Bro. Farrell for giving him the much needed study block. Also his friends and teachers, but most importantly his parents for their generous support over the years.

Rob Grecht

Rob came to V.C. in grade 8 from Corpus Christi. During his 5 years here, he has participated in Varsity Track and Field and Football. After graduation he plans to continue weightlifting, and go to an American University with his fiance Shelly. He feels V.C. has left him with pride and maturity. He will always remember his friends, and wishes them the best of luck in whatever they do. P.S. Don't forget guys, August 10th.

Roberto Garcia

Roberto was the sweet and intelligent guy in gr. 10 after moving from the Philippines. Three years in V.C. transformed him to a "better" individual. He was busy maintaining honor roll status, being student council vice-pres. in gr. 12, and rowing at 5:30am. He cruised in the "tang mobile" and partied a lot with D.C., J.M., M.S. and the gang. He'll always remember K.S., the girl who drove him insane; and S.D., a very "special" friend. He looks forward to a career in law and business and he'd like to thank everyone who was and will be involved in his life. I.D.D.F.C.

William James Paul Hamlin

William is not a 12 year man only because grade 6 was spent in France. Travelling from Richmond every day, he has tried out lots of things, including the yearbook, honour roll, a short but glorious grade 8 football career, three years of swimming, and the Irish rowing crew. Future plans include doing something academic to make everyone happy, and marrying M.H. "Skip-py". All the best everybody.

Greg Hand

It seems that in an academic atmosphere painted in high school life, one could learn much more than was presented. These values which are painfully developed over the course of years are held closer than any other faculty. The heart is developed as much as the mind. Special thanks to Mom & Dad, Renee, Kevin, Stephen friends and Jesus, I love you all. "Am I a body or am I a mind riding a horse named Body"

Chris Hermesmann

Chris has attended V.C. for the last six years and it has been a thorough "rhapsody." This silly banana played trumpet in the exclusive College stage band and enjoyed the "BOP" solo. Recently Chris has acquired a love for rowing and can be seen at 5:30 AM at VRC. Outside of school, he has many memorable memories with the Delta Youth Orchestra and the Latona Crew. Later, Chris plans to party, then party again, and perhaps achieve a degree in Engineering.

Richard Hanley

Richard has been going to V.C. for four LONG years. He made it through thanks to the love and support of his parents, his friends N.B., J.W., B.P., R.A., J.C., and G.H., and mostly N.S., for helping him, pulling him through, and for all of her love and support. "A pox O' your throat, you bawling, blasphemous, incharitable dog." - William Shakespeare Bye-Bye

John Hinze

John has been attending Vancouver College since grade eight after coming from Kerrisdale Elementary. He has enjoyed the last five years at the College which were filled with many special moments. Although he never participated in a team sport, he has had an active role in extra curricular activities including the Collegian and V.C. Sound Crew. He plans to go on to U.B.C., get a law degree, and make lots of money. BEST WISHES EVERYONE!

Robert Hensel

Robert has been attending V.C. for the past nine years, coming to the College in grade 3. He has kept out of trouble with G.R., M.O., M.C., and S.E. The years that have gone by so quickly were good ones and there is still much to remember. Robert is planning to go to U.B.C. and somehow pull off a commerce degree. He likes to thank the Brothers and teachers for their time, and his parents for their love and support. The best of luck and wishes to the Grads of '89. Cheers!!

Franki Hung

Franki came to Vancouver College in grade ten after studying at St. Joseph's A-C school in Hong Kong and St. Benedict Catholic Secondary School in Toronto. These three years passed quickly and were filled with experiences and memories. In the future, he plans to go to U.B.C. and study in the field of science. He would like to thank his parents, all his relatives in Hong Kong especially his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wong Fook Chun, and all his teachers.

Andriyko Herchak

Andriyko entered V.C. in grade eight. He participated in a variety of sports and activities, and also managed to make honor at least once a year. Andriyko thanks his parents for their patience, his teachers, and especially all his friends for the unforgettable memories of skiing, partying, always remembering "no brain, no pain" and I.D.D.F.C., well at least most of the time. Good luck all grads! See y'all at U.B.C!

Tony Iannella

I wasn't sure what to expect when I arrived in grade 11, but I wasn't disappointed. I made friends and enjoyed myself (too much). This is a great school, but I won't miss it! Special thanks to my parents, R. and R.A., and everyone else who helped out. Hope to see you all again. Ciao!

Luis T. Kalaw

As Luis reminisces upon his stay at Vancouver College, he recollects those memorable moments from those Provincial Championships and Emerald Tourneys to those late night strolls down at Jericho Beach. Luis would like to thank all those pathetic people as well as his fellow roof raisers for their words of wisdom given so unselfishly. At last this ends an era, spanning 5 years filled with moments never to be forgotten.

James Keogh

James has been coming to V.C. from Whiterock since grade 9. During his stay he has been on the rowing crew, the basketball team, and the honor roll. James plans to take a year off and sail around the world and then go to university. Fond memories include rowing at 5:30 a.m. and basketball at 10 p.m. He wishes to thank everyone for making his stay here very special, especially C.H., D.B., and W.H.

Gerald Kelly

Gerald came to Vancouver College in Grade 8 from God's country. He quickly adapted to high school life by monopolizing the firecracker market. After participation in the basketball program for five years, he wonders why he bothered and proceeds to pick out another splinter. Big Guy #3 wishes all other Big Guys the best of luck. "Hey, if you got no cash and got no style, don't worry about it. It never bothered G.K."

Patrick Johnathan Kerridge

Pat feels that his five years at V.C. have been very worthwhile. After seeing many friends leave he is glad to have persevered. He participated in intramurals, senior soccer, and graduation committee. Pat would like to thank his friends and family for the many good memories and looks forward to studying sciences at U.B.C. "and your wheels are sinkin' low. Just believe and you can't go wrong. In the light you will find the road." - Led Zeppelin.

Damian Geraldo Kettlewell

Belch has enjoyed his 10 year tenure at V.C. It was predicted that Damian would climb higher in his plea for academic excellence, but never quite got there. He would like to thank his parents, coaches, and teachers who prepared him for the BIG BAD WORLD. F.M.'s: B.B., Summer 88, hardbut, pregrad, and I-nites. Best of luck to the B-ball bunch and I'll have you over for dinner when we're all married. "Alright Big Guy" - R. Ferrly is my main man!!

Andrew King

Andy King came to V.C. in grade 7 from the depths of West Vancouver. Monarch only on name, Andy is best known for his ever changing hair colour. He would like to thank: P.M. for a ride on his motorcycle and for being pulled over by his teacher's brother, B.M. for almost getting him a G.T.A. record, last and least the "Zoo Crew": I.A, S.D, B.M, B.P, T.S. and those departed J.C, S.B, D.B. Andy hopes to achieve either world domination or the top of the rock charts. WE ARE THE RIDERS OF THE STORM.

Marcus Lai

The past 6 years at V.C. has been a memorable experience. Marcus is sad to see his stay here end but realizes that he must move on. He would like to thank all of his close friends for their support and wisdom and would like to wish them all a prosperous future. He would especially like to thank his loving parents for their guidance and sacrifices throughout these years. Marcus leaves V.C. in search of true happiness and a meaningful life.

Joseph Law

Three years at V.C. has been very enjoyable for Joseph. Although school has demanded hard work in his senior years, Joseph has had fun with his great friends at the College. Special thanks to M.L., V.L, M.Y., P.L., C.L., and B.W. He would also like to thank his loving family for all the support and love that was given. His main goal is to be successful academically, socially and financially.

Victor John Law

Victor arrived at V.C. in grade 8 from Saint Francis Xavier School. During his five years he has excelled in academics - achieving honor roll status every year. Victor survived a brief stint in basketball, and has joined other activities such as intramurals, and public speaking. Victor's favorite passe-temps are swimming, basketball, weightlifting to Rocky IV's theme song, "Fight to the Burning Heart," and listening to Mozart occasionally. Victor hopes to go to university and pursue a career in the field of medicine.

Philip E. Lee

Phil has been commuting to V.C. from Richmond for the past four years. Whenever he is not extremely absorbed in homework, he can be found listening to music or playing almost any sport imaginable, especially tennis and volleyball. After graduation, Phil plans to experience all that Australia has to offer and still be back in time to start university in the fall. Thanks to his family and all his friends for their support.

Sam Lee

"Long has faded that sunny sky
Echoes fade and memories die,
Autumn frosts have slain July.
Still she haunts me phantom
wise
Alice moving under skies
Never seen by waking eyes.
Ever drifting down that stream-
Lingering in that golden gleam-
Life - what is it but a dream?"
- L. Carroll

Syd Lenton

Syd has been making that long haul out from, (Tawas), (Twass), (Saw), whatever!, for the past five years. Syd had his good and bad, but mostly good times at V.C. and would like to thank his parents, Mr. B. and all of his friends (D.B., N.B., A.S., A.U., I.T., C.P., D.P., T.R.) for all of their support. After school is out, you will be able to find "Squid" flyin' on ROSSIS or flyin' on a HURRICANE in Australia before returning to school. Good luck, Grads, oh and 'till . . . Seeeya!!!

Alex Leung

Alex has attended V.C. for 6 years and regrets he did not participate in school football, basketball, soccer, wrestling, rowing, track and field, badminton, or tennis, but because you're probably skim reading this, you'll think he has. Accomplishments he can boast of are: stints with the Collegian and Voice, 3 years as the class treasurer, constant intramural support and, the acquisition of a nickname that he hopes everyone will forget before the class reunion.

Colman Leung

I'm excited that I'm going to graduate this year and I regret that I have to say goodbye to all my friends.

Gary M. Lising

This was Gary's first and last year at Vancouver College. His stay was interesting but pleasant but he misses the advantage of what the Public Education system provided - Girls. Thanks to the staff and Brothers for their understanding and patients. Memorable memories: Collegian Club 89'; Monday and Friday Holidays (J/K Bro. MacKenzie.) Motto: You can give without loving but can not love without giving. Best of success to the Graduates of 89' and best of luck to the grads of 90'.

Ewen Macaulay

Ewen is another one of those many people who has been commuting from the East end to V.C. for the better half of his life. Since grade 7 he has participated in many of the sports provided, including football, basketball and soccer. He was also a proud member of the V.C. Rowing Team. He plans to further his scholastic studies at university and after, with his post secondary education, hopes to get a good job so he can sit back and enjoy life.

Chris Mahoney

Chris came to VC in Gr 6 and immediately received the name Stone for reasons still not known to him. At VC Chris played on the tennis team, dominating opponents and helping lead the team to an almost provincial title. When not playing tennis Chris can be found booming 300 yd drives for the golf team. The golf team played in the provincial championships but the collars got a little tight under the intense pressure and the players could not produce the goods. Congratulations to all the grads and good luck in the future.

Gregory Richard McDonnell

"Mac" arrived at V.C. in grade 10. From day one it suited him perfectly. At V.C., people don't baby you. They make you work, set goals, achieve, right in line with the way he perceives himself to be; perseverance, would be the biggest thing he learned about himself, but that had a lot to do with the strength of those around him. Thanks to all, especially to his mom for the support she gave. Love ya' Dil "We made a promise, we swore we'd always remember. No retreat, no surrender. Friends forever" - Bruce Springsteen

Nick Marchi

Nick arrived at Vancouver College in grade eight from Crescent Park Elementary in Surrey. During his five year stay he participated in football, track and field and, of course, soccer. He joined the Varsity Soccer Team at the age of fourteen and eventually helped lead them to three Independent Zone titles. After graduation he plans to attend a U.S. or Canadian University on a soccer scholarship or to capture the Canadian hearts in track and field.

Patrick S. McKeown

"Ray" as tagged by a select few, has commuted daily from his home in the Dunbar Estates to V.C. for 5 years. He enjoyed his time here, and left his mark by donating the "Official 1989 Grad-Mobile." FM's - luncheon outings to the elements, and sauteing steaks at parties. FP's - Oxford, Harvard, Stanford . . . Langara? Patrick's farewell message to the class of '89 sums up his high school experience: "This is the end" - J.M.

Benjamin James Martin

Ben has been lethargically roaming the halls of V.C. for the past eleven years. He has attained a high record of tardiness in the Lower Mainland. He has participated in every sport and activity over the years, and prospered well in track. A member of the letterman association and various clubs, he will look back on the years and yawn. And remember the two great years in the smoke pit with A.K., W.H., K.M. His future ambitions are not well known, but he'll consider them while riding a wave in Australia.

Alex McNeur

It may have been Camelot, for Jack and Jacqueline But on the Che Guevara highway filling up with gasoline Fidel Castro's brother spies a rich lady who's crying. Over luxury's disappointment So he walks over and he's trying To sympathise with her, but he thinks that he should warn her. That the third world is just around the corner. In the Soviet Union a scientist is blinded By the resumption of nuclear testing and he is reminded That Dr. Robert Oppenheimer's optimism fell At the first hurdle.

David McConachie

David has graced the halls of V.C. for 6 memorable years. During this period David has been on the school newspaper for two years, achieving the coveted position of Chief Operating Officer. When not cooking pasta, Dave can be found swooshing down the slopes of Big White and Whistler with R.R. far behind. Fond memories are of Grade 9 english classes, New Years at Whistler and roaming the Bois de Boulogne in the wee hours of the morning on Tour de France 88. David's future plans are to get very rich, very fast. David would like to thank all the Brothers and staff at V.C., as well as his parents.

Kevin Mohammed

Kevin has been strolling the halls of V.C. for 5 years. He has contributed to the football and track and field programs of the school. He would like to thank: "Cause", "Effect", Flip, S'andor, Pies, Jose and Mr. IDDFC. He hopes to go to a university because he feels that professors deserve the same amount of trauma as high school teachers. His famous quote: No way! I did not! Well, what did she look like?!

Radu Moise

Although Alex came from Romania and has studied at V.C. for only one year, He has had a great time made up of many memorable experiences. He has enjoyed basketball, skiing and especially partying. For all of this he wishes to thank all his teachers and Mrs. Russell who have given him special help. He will always remember the friends he has made, like Bogey Man and all the other grads.

Charles Northup

The past 5 years has brought about some of the best times I will ever experience. The friendships will be with me all my life. The parties, the games and the good times will never be forgotten. I owe so much to many whose influence has helped me understand who I am. The love and the joy felt through the school has made the past five years some of the most precious yet. Thanks.

Warner Edward Monteiro

It took 12 years to finish school Diploma in hand and no-one's fool
I've graced VC for 5 long years
With TT, DB, JK, PL, MY, CH, and peers
I'm going home for sail and sun
University, family, a life begun
And I thank my parents for all

You can leave but don't leave me
There is no dark side to the moon
It is all dark - until the sunset.

Finbarr Patrick O'Reilly

Finbarr arrived on the doorstep of V.C. in grade 11. He enjoyed 2 years under the iron fists of D.B. and Mr. K. F.M.: Crescent, Winter practices wearing ski tubes, Agrodome, Sodas, Austin Texas, Guemes, Mackay's, Physics 11, New Years W/D, Hot tubs in snow, ski trips, B.B. Deepa, Greg S., Greg M., Dave, Gerald, Damion, Grace. Good luck to the "Big Guys". "If I should bow my head, let it be to a high mountain."

Joe Muego

Five years I thought I wouldn't enjoy turned out to be five of the best years of my life. All the people I've met, all the things I've done, and all the things I am going to do have been influenced by my years at V.C. Yes, fond memories of Vancouver College will always be with me and I hope my memory will always be with Vancouver College. IDDFC.

Colin Osborne

Colin a.k.a "The Oz with the Coz" has been devastating the halls of V.C. for 11 years. Athletically he sprinted for the track team and tore up the field as the tailback for the Varsity Football Team. Oz was usually found looking for a good time with Ali, The Effect, The Plumber (Giacomo) or the Psycho. Future "Causes" include playing arena football and having a "raise the roof" party on New Years Eve 1999. "... If my head were shaven, then my power would leave me and I should lose my strength and become like any other man." (Judges 16:17)

Brad Newman-Bennett

Brad came to V.C. in grade nine from beautiful Kelowna, B.C. Brad has greatly enjoyed his stay at V.C., especially winning the J.V. football provincial championship and sharing his Canadian Junior Gold Championship with his friends. Brad hopes to attend a big name American University and later pursue a professional golfing career. Brad would also like to thank all the staff and his friends and wish the best of luck to the Grads of '89.

Michael Patrick Parker

Game Over! Mike's 6 years at VC have been well, interesting to say the least. Hailing from N. Van with J.C., he finally bought a trendy car (life in the fast lane). Skiing and good times with D.B, A.S, K.D, B.C, T.F, and C.C. Memories include U2, INXS, rowing and yearbook with M.M and S.C, New Years, Whistler, Rel. 11 and Grad Com. Hi Mom! Thanks Dad. So how was it C.N? Good luck to all. I'll see ya at UBC Comm. Watch for me on the 6 o'clock news. "Do the ends justify the means?"

Vinko Pehar

Pink, Pinky, Pinko (and whatever else you can think of) came to College in grade 8. For 5 years this resident of Richmond travelled daily from the lowlands to the beautiful campus of V.C.. Many thanks to teachers and friends for unforgettable times and especially his parents for their encouragement and support. Future plans include playing water polo and hopefully enrolling at UVIC. Best of everything to the Grads of 1989.

Morgan Poliquin

Morgan has been commuting to V.C. from the bottomless pit of iniquity, Surrey, since grade 8. The travelling time coupled with homework has not allowed him to participate in as many school activities as he would have liked to but he made up for this by partaking in community sports. Future plans include enduring the rigours of U.B.C. Engineering, foreign travels and the affections of beautiful women. In closing Morgan would like to say that he enjoyed his stay at V.C. tremendously.

James Pell

"Life's hard, and then you die!"

Albert Punzlan

It seems like only yesterday when it all began . . . endless hours of sciences, unforgettable airbands, and cramming sessions in the auto. My F.M.'s include Jericho, Belcarra, summer 87, and hanging out with W.C., B.B. F.P.'s may hold furthering my education in the university and owning "My Own Car". I would like to thank all my friends, especially A.R., C.B., and T.L. who have made my high school years more memorable, and special thanks to my parents, who have always given me their love and support.

Brad Pennefather

Brad came to V.C. in grade 10. He has had many good times here and would like to thank the pit, the Roach (Roger), Malcolm, Mark (Scamen), Greg, Andriko, Rock Star Rick, and the Grads of '88 such as Bradley B. and Critter. Brad would also like to thank his family, Mr. Langille, Issac, Szetela, Budai and Burke for their help. Brad hopes to go to university, and become a fishing guide. Good Luck to all grads and friends.

Sanjeev Rai

Sanjeev has enjoyed making the scenic trek from sunny Richmond to V.C. for the past two memorable and successful years. During his stay, he has participated in intramurals, public speaking, and also has been a part of the yearbook staff. He is pleased with his academic achievements. He wishes to extend his deepest gratitude to all the teachers, and especially Br. Mackenzie and Mrs. C. Russell for making his stay a most pleasant one. He would also like to thank his parents for their continued support. He plans to continue his education at U.B.C. in the Faculty of Science. Finally, Sanjeev would like to wish the best of luck to his fellow Grads of '89.

Michael J. Persad

When Mike came to V.C. in grade 8 from ICS in Vancouver he didn't know what to expect, but feels his five years were successful. His fondest memories were the Social Committee, Accounting 11 with Bug, Friday nights with A.M. (Gotta Loon), and intense arguments between D.R. (No!) and J.R. (sulk). Mike intends to go to UBC and study Commerce and Law, and fulfill his lifelong ambition of becoming a rich tax consultant/ Lawyer. CHEERS!

Roger Ramcharita

Roger has darkened the corridors of V.C. since grade 8 and can honestly say that it has been a blast. Besides being the editor of the VoiCe, Ramjet has participated in varsity soccer, intramurals, and student council. Fond memories include France '88, New Years at Whistler and Big White with D.M., and finding stupid things to do on a Saturday night with the boys. But before he goes, he would like to thank all those who helped to mold him into the man that he now is - David Letterman, Bob Dylan, Tad's Texaco, U2, and of course, his family.

Joseph Ramos

In a seemingly huge grade 4 class, Joe began his stay at V.C. Why he came should be blamed on his parents (but he thanks them). He'd like to thank the reclusive pool rebel, the cautious upperhanded assassin, the stable mocking sorcerer and the successful actor/ editor for their friendship and support. And so he bids his big old school goodbye. And Thanks. "It's so easy to laugh, it's so easy to hate, it takes guts to be gentle and kind" Smiths.

Todd Rattray

Todd arrived at V.C. five years ago thinking, "this could be hell." After enduring two years of college life, he finally realized that V.C. was the place to be. He loved to party on the weekends and recount his adventures to the "spocks" in Physics class. Todd would like to thank his favourite teacher: Mr. McKay, as well as his classmates, for elevating the painstaking hours of classroom duldrum. I.D.D.F.C.

Bruce Reid

Bruce (Bruiser) has been under the influence of the Fighting Irish since grade 6. Bruce's first five years at College were spent participating in all athletic activities. By grade 11 basketball and track effortless and boring so Bruce decided to devote total concentration on academics and football, a field in which he will always be noted for his hands, speed, and agility. Bruce would like to thank the school and everyone involved in his 7 great years.

Mark Rethy

Sandor slipped completely unnoticed into the ranks of V.C. in grade 8. Through a lot of coaxing by his closest friends: Flip, Chuck, and Joe "IDDFC" Muego, Mad Dog came unto himself. His most memorable moments include: the slammer in Burnaby, electric jello, and male bonding nights at Roberto's. Bert wants to give his best to all the grads of 1989. The last five years have been the best of my life. P.S. The B.C.'s are mine.

Miguel Angel Rivera Cortes

Miguel came to V.C. from Mexico City in grade 10. He loves God, girls and parties, and could be seen around campus at practically any time, at school or working for Bro. Basil. He was known for selling all kinds of stuff out of his "Trunk." Some favourite activities included REL 12 with Mr. Freire, the rowing team and flipping sculls. His life goal is to become an awesome businessman and to go to Heaven. He thanks all the friends and the people who helped make his stay at V.C. a memorable and a profitable one.

David Robinson

David came to Vancouver College in Grade 8 and was involved in the sports programme, soon to take up with T.K.D. and is still continuing. His future plans consist of a successful art career after grad from U.B.C., and a long life with Karen and having a whole horde of kids. He enjoyed his time at V.C. Thanks to his parents; J.R. and M.P. and remember - "Beauty is whatever makes the adrenalin run."

Eric Roenitz

Notorious for his ability to complete his homework during class, Eric has still managed to pull off enviable marks. To date, he has had a "relatively" (thanks Einstein) successful academic career culminating in his "victory" in the CAP exam. In the future Eric will be pursuing a doctorate in Particle Physics at U.B.C. and maybe, just maybe, he'll be able to find the 90% of our universe which, as of yet, is still missing.

Gord Anthony Ryznar

Gord has been a member of V.C. since grade 8 and has suffered endlessly from the strict dress code enforced by Mr. Sponza. Despite the pain of wearing a tie, regulation shoes, and waking up at six, many pleasant memories of the past five years still exist. Such include grade 9 Walkathon (the Duck?), Kamloops, Religion class with REG and Whistler adventures with M.C., G.M., M.O. and M.O.'s uncle. In his spare time Gord skis, plays guitar, absorbs "ZEP" tunes, and cheers for the "Fighting I." Best wishes to all the Grads of '89.

Steven Seewald

Stuck in the 8:30-3:00 time slot, Steven will be happy to retire to the leisure life of university at Trinity Western. He will be studying aviation. For regaining his rightful parking spot, which was lost due to an automotive disease of a certain kind, he would like to thank J.P. and R.A. (x2) for acknowledging his heavenly mandate to occupy the spot in question. Also thanks to E.R. for his philosophic insight towards grade 12 and the sneak previews of Tax Exemption Schemes for both Teachers and Students. Steven also wishes his fellow classmates good luck in the future.

Tony Serka

I came to V.C. in grade 8 and participated in yearbook photography in my senior year. I have enjoyed supporting vocally Irish football and basketball teams. Future plans include going into the fields of mathematics and sciences. I would like to thank J.G. for his support and I leave with this thought in mind! "We go to war only to make peace. We never went to war with any other design. We carry the national conscience wherever we go." William McKinley, 25th President of the U.S.

Gregory Alberto Silva

"Silver" (Big Guy #2) Rebel Rocker! Cruzin' Robson in my '67 Camaro with Bret, listening to G.N.R. FM: Xenon, BC's, San Diego '88, Maui '89, D&Ds, and Ashley. FS: "Alright Big Guy!.. PP's: Dayl, Crescent, and taking ski lift to Ego's. Thanx D.B., Mr. K., Sister Shreenan, and especially Mom and Dad for your support. Skin, Surfer, Ego, Crazy and Belch, may we always keep in touch. Long live Austin Tex! P.S.: Ego, lend me $10? I'll pay you back . . . promise!

Jeff Sommerville

Jeff came to V.C. two years ago. Although he was only here for a short time he really enjoyed himself. He has no real future plans other than travelling with Murph and Sweenes. Jeff's advice to future grads is to say away from Bruce's Burm and Chem 11.

Adrian Strench

I would like to thank all the teachers for the knowledge they have given and all the great friends, which range from the football team to classmates. I'll never forget the good times that one is supposed to have as a teenager. Partying with Niall M. and playing football with Jon Gray. But to Syd, Mike, Todd, Andriyko, Jason, Charles, and Dennis are the best friends a person could ask for. You made my stay at V.C. unforgettable.

Tino Michael Stumpf

Tino has been attending VC for the past 5 years after going to Holy Cross in Burnaby. Tino hasn't been too involved with school activities because of the various part-time jobs he has held. Tino plans to enter the field of business administration at either U.B.C., or BCIT. Tino would like to thank all the teachers who helped him along the way.

Marc Louis Sullivan

Marc has been sleepwalking through the halls of VC for 3 1/2 years. Although his time here has been short. He is positive that the memories of the great friends and times will remain with him for the rest of his life. His future plans are to attempt university and eventually become excessively wealthy. Thanks to B.P D.C J.M R.G & R.A. Keep in touch.

Gregory James Sweeney

"Sweenes" has been coming to College from the lowly farmlands of Ladner for 6 years. He has travelled over 35,000 miles going to and from school, thus setting a new world record. Greg will probably take a year off and travel down the coast before going back to school in either Teaching or Broadcasting. "When I was a young boy I threw away those young boy ways. Now that I'm older - it's so much older, I long for those young boy ways." - J.C.M.

Doug Swoboda

Doug has been travelling to V.C. from North Vancouver since grade 7 and has been an active participant in intramurals as well as band. He can be seen motorcrossing through the Amazon Jungle or 4x4ing across the Great White North. Doug hopes to become an accountant for a large firm. Doug encourages all those who haven't yet graduated and hopes that they have one heck of a time getting there.

Brian C. Ka Ho Waung

Brian arrived in grade 2 from St F.X. Passe-temps prefere: badminton, tennis, hockey, weightlifting, listening to music (new wave and Chinese F.O.B.), and just having fun. After graduation Brian will further his knowledge at U.B.C. hoping for a degree in either Pharmaceutical Science or better yet, Dentistry. He would like to thank his mother, grandmother, uncle, his close friend Bogeyman, the Chinese connection, the departed A.K., and his teachers who supported him along the way.

Jason Peter Till

Jason came to V.C. from the plateau of sunny Tsawwassen eight years ago. Jason has enjoyed his stay, and would like to thank his closest friends D.W., G.K., R.P., G.S., D.B., A.S., and his family for all their support. When not at home or school, Jason can be found stopping pucks, hitting B.P. at S.C.'s house, or "Catching Air" at baker with S.C., S.L., D.B. Jason's future plans include attending University in the business field and someday playing pro hockey or baseball. GOOD LUCK TO THE GRADS OF '89, HEY SYD, Seee Ya!

David Williscroft

David paddled in from Richmond in grade 7, right Gerald? Throughout his stay, he has been an avid participant in both the academic and athletic aspects of school life. Memories include the Agrodome, ski trips, sodas with the big guys, California with G.M.C., and partying with M.D. David would like to thank all the brothers, teachers, Coaches Beers, Kavalec, Rogers, and especially his parents for their patience and support. David plans to further his education at an undecided university. Good luck to all the grads, especially the big guys!

Leo Tioseco

Leo has been bussing it to Vancouver College for all his high school life. Memories filled with dances, parties, and funkions. Good times with Dominic, Albert, Allan, Sam, Mike and Cesar. Thanks to the girls who made my life special: Amy, Ver-na, Kim, Teresa and Charina. Mom and Dad, I appreciate everything that you have done for me. I love you. "Hey guys, there's a whole world out there for the taking!"

Jonathan Wilson

Jon has been walking to V.C. from Richmond everyday since grade eight, quite a few miles. After his three hour trek he is quite happy to see the happy halls of the college and his awaiting friends. This may seem the climax of Jon's day but he still has six hours of schooling, what a treat! After graduation Jon won't be saying good-bye to his friends while planning a stay at U.B.C.

Sean Virani

Sean, always the best dressed man on campus, has roamed the halls of V.C. for 5 years. A.K.A. Habib, Muzzy & the Iron Sheik, he participated on the VoiCe & Student Council. Fond memories of V.C. include getting intimate with a bottle of whiskey in Paris '88. Future plans include commanding a 6 figure salary & getting that Porsche cabriolet he's dreamed about! He would like to thank the brothers, staff & especially his family for all their support and encouragement.

Marcus Yim

High school provides a foundation for life and Marcus has been assembling his groundwork at Vancouver College depuis five years. Upon completion, his ambition is in the field of Science and Engineering. His unwavering interest of sports, is second in priority to his scholastic productivity. Unfortunately, his participation on the Social Committee does not categorize him as a Hedonist. He would like to thank Mr. P. Doyle, for this scientific enlightenment and to wish the Grads, THE BEST OF LIFE.

Young quarterback shows he's a champion at beating cancer

It's Vince Danielson's birthday Saturday.

Oh, to be almost 17, a football hero, and alive. Especially that last part.

Now, if a person were going to write about a quarterback with a mission this weekend, the obvious story would be Matt Duggan and the Grey Cup. But that's about a game. This is about life.

Vince Danielson is the varsity quarterback and safety of the Vancouver College Fighting Irish. He stands 6 feet, 2½ inches, weighs 186 pounds, is his class president, and this year's high school all-star quarterback. A lot of American colleges are scrambling to recruit him.

Saturday night at B.C. Place Stadium he takes that impressive package of personal credentials against the Notre Dame Jugglers in the B.C. high school football championship final.

Three years ago this month, when Vince was learning to live in a body that was all arms and legs, he led the Vancouver College Jayvees, the Grade 10 kids, to a 7-0 victory in the B.C. junior championship game by tossing a 43-yard touchdown pass to Brad Newman-Bennett, this year's B.C. Junior golf champion.

That was a tough ball game and Danielson came out of it with the usual lumps that quarterbacks expect to absorb and expect to go away. But one lump didn't go away.

Two weeks after that game, Dr. Susan O'Reilly completed her examination of a persistent lump between Danielson's jaw and neck. She told him he had cancer. The lump was a non-Hodgkin's type lymphoma cancer. The survival prognosis, 50-50.

This week, I asked Danielson if he could remember exactly how he felt at that moment.

He said, "Well, you come off a championship football season and somebody tells you you have cancer, with a 50-50 chance of dying from it. Sure, I was scared. Sure, my first thought was, 'Why me?' You know, you see about cancer on television, and you never think about it happening to you. But I'm a Christian and I know that God sends us challenges. I had a few bad moments, but I had the support to overcome them."

His father, Park Iloyal marketing manager Per Danielson, recalls, "That wonderful doctor, Dr. O'Reilly, looked right in Vince's eyes and said, 'Vince, you have a fast-moving cancer, but we have fast-moving medicine'... he didn't blink an eye. It must be his Viking heritage. He's been a fighter and scambler since he was just a puppy and I pushed him out on a muddy soccer field on a cold Saturday morning. He loved it."

It took three months of treatment to bring Danielson's cancer under control. He spent Christmas, 1985, in a ward-room at the Cancer Control Agency, his parents, his sister and his two brothers joining him there for Christmas dinner.

He missed three months of school but took private tutoring at home. At the conclusion of 12 treatments, Dr. O'Reilly told Danielson that there was only a one-per-cent chance of the cancer returning. Danielson took that as 99 per cent of a clean bill and went back to school and football.

Danielson's quarterback coach is Pete Ohler, the former University of Washington and B.C. Lions quarterback. In a letter circulated to all the top colleges in the U.S., Ohler says, "He is exceptionally strong and has an arm of enormous potential. At this point he is major college material."

As a result of recommendations like that, Danielson has received 105 letters from college recruiters, including the University of Miami, Michigan State, Iowa and Oregon State. He says he has a personal leaning towards Washington, whose last three quarterbacks are in the National Football League.

Two weeks ago, in the last league game of an 8-0 season, Danielson and the Irish defeated Notre Dame, 26-0. The game-breaker was a 48-yard scoring pass from Danielson to Newman-Bennett. That's all the history that Danielson would care to repeat from his 1985 season.

This week, a letter arrived at the Cancer Control Agency.

It said, "Win or lose, I will be dedicating my personal efforts on the field to another great team: the team of doctors, nurses and staff at the Cancer Control Agency."

"Without your dedication, I would not be celebrating my 17th birthday this Saturday."

It was signed by the youngest of the two quarterbacks who have a mission this weekend.

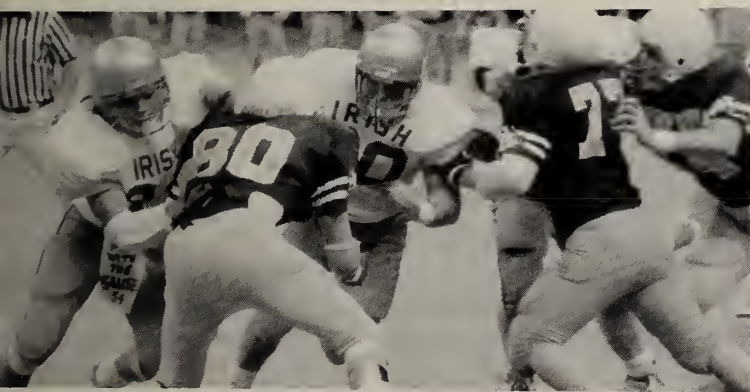

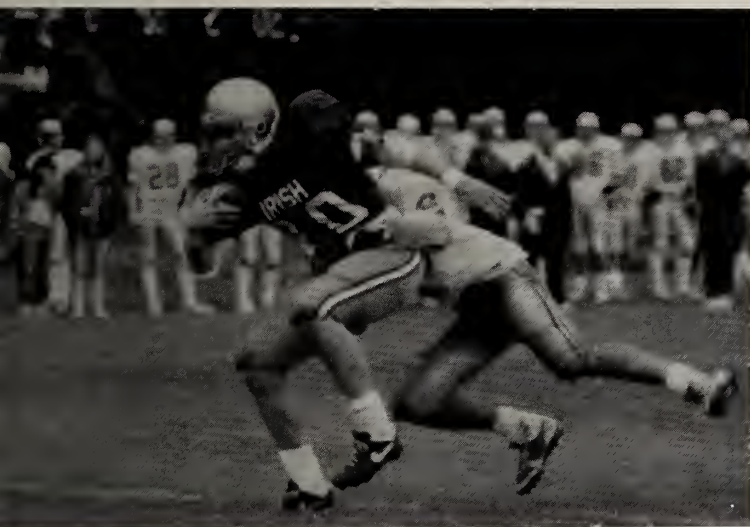

Although ending the season on a somewhat disappointing note, losing to Notre Dame in the Provincial Championship, the Varsity Team had a very successful season, finishing with an overall record of 9 and 1. Highlights of the season include a first place in the newly formed "AA" PAC-10 East, and the Archbishop's Trophy as a result of a thrilling 26-0 victory over Notre Dame, with best back lineman awards going to Bruce Reid and Chris Burns respectively. The varsity squad also captured 15 of 29 league all-stars.

1. Vince Danielson looks to shoot at BCIT. 2. Greg McDonnell, "the consummate team player" catches his breath. 3. Greg Silva lays in an easy one against Kelowna. 4. Finnbarr O'Reilly is surrounded by Blue Demons.

The Varsity basketball team had another successful season. Highlights of the season were: a double overtime semi-final Emerald contest against the Abbotsford Panthers, especially the last split second shot by David Williscroft; the two point victory against the North Delta Huskies to advance to the BC Championships; the last quarter come back triumph against the Steveston Packers in the Lower Mainland Championships and the enjoyable trip to San Diego. Once again, the team won the Independant League with a 6-0 record, then placed fourth in the highly ranked Lower Mainland tournament, and finally finished the season with two disappointing losses in the BC Championship Tournament while being hampered throughout those games with many key injuries.

The team graduates 8 senior players and one senior manager. The most valuable player was David Williscroft and the most improved player was Greg McDonnell. Finally the team would like to thank all those fans that followed the team throughout the season. Our greatest memories will come from the friendships that were created and solidified with all the time spent together working and playing hard.

In his second year with the grade 9 program, coach Grant led this talented squad to a successful season. They were undefeated in the Independent league and established a new record for second place finishes in tournament play. Paul Williscroft was the team MVP while Graeme D'arcy earned the Most Improved player award for his gritty determination and hard work. Basketball fans at V.C. look forward to watching this exciting team next year at the JV level.

The Winter Games Team was composed of ten boys born in 1975. The team qualified for the Winter Games by winning the Zone 5 tournament, defeating the best that Vancouver and North Vancouver had to offer. At the end of February they travelled by bus to beautiful Nelson B.C. They defeated Prince Rupert, Tswassen, and Victoria to capture the gold medal. The team represented the school and zone very well (just ask the Penticton Lakettes!).

CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM

The '88 Cross Country Team was composed of eight regular competitors who showed a great deal of depth, character, and perseverance throughout their season. The team, coached by Mr. Mike Langille, trained every day and competed once a week in the most undesirable autumn weather. They placed a respectable fourth in their zone earning them a trip to the B.C. championships in Castlegar. Next season looks very promising. We'll only lose one senior from this year's squad and barring the untimely injuries we suffered last year, a championship season is possible. The runners would like to thank Mr. Langille for his dedication and the Athletic Dept. for our tickets to Castlegar.

OUR DIARY 4:25AM

Wake up . . . get some fresh air into the room. "Gotta wake up." The sky is still dark and the lights from the city are reflected by the clouds. A glass of juice and maybe some toast. It's hard to get creative at 4:45.

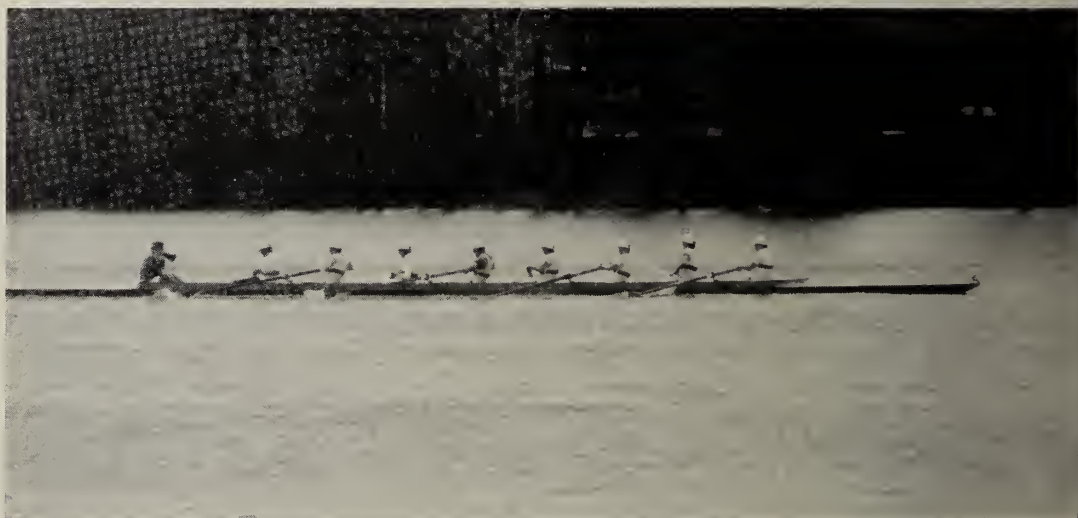

5:30 Arrive at the boathouse. Team spirit radiates from the group standing on the dock. The fresh air and the lights from the downtown buildings awaken the senses.

5:45 The coach arrives. We're ready and waiting.

5:50 Discipline begins. Lift the 58 foot ling shell from the stretchers. The slow meticulous process is followed in moving the "the Pride" from storage to placing it gently on the water. One careless move and everyone goes home. The coxswain begins the routine set of commands . . . "One foot in ready . . . down." Your first sensation is how the shell is precariously balanced by all 9 passengers. "Number off from the bow when ready . . ."

Numbers are shouted in almost militaristic fashion. It's the moment for which all this preparation has been made. The oars dip into the glassy water and speed builds rapidly as my body puts out 100%, every muscle used to maximum efficiency.

7:30 Practice is finished. Satisfaction in working hard and pushing it to the limit, coupled with the serenity of your surroundings and the camaraderie shared between all members. This feeling is the fuel that fires the determination and pride felt by rowers and it is this reason that we, as Vancouver College's first rowing crew live this routine every morning rain or shine, 5 days a week.

This year, the Vancouver College Wrestling Team fared quite well, attending tournaments at Port Alberni, the B.C. Age Class at Kamloops and the prestigious S.F.U. Tournament, as well as numerous tri-meets. This year's team was composed mostly of grade 8 and 9 wrestlers, which shows promise for future teams. The zone championships for Vancouver were held at V.C. Seven of our wrestlers qualified for the B.C. Championships held at Kilarney. These wrestlers are Rob Davies, Mike Morel, Philip Crowes, Elliot Hong, Andrew Cockren, Simon Harrison and Bogdan Floresco. Outstanding wrestlers were Rob Davies and Mike Morel.

● AD NEWMAN-BENNETT CELEBRATES AFTER PUTTING OUT ON 18
the Kelowna golfer enjoyed a two-stroke victory at the Canadian Junior championship

Kelowna golfer wins title

By PAT BULMER
Courier Sports

A Kelowna golfer has won the Canadian Junior Men's Golf Championship.

Seventeen-year-old Brad Newman-Bennett made a spectacular birdie chip shot on the 17th hole Friday to secure a two-stroke victory over Lawry Willis of Comox at the Kelowna Golf and Country Club.

Newman-Bennett finished the tournament with a four-round score of one-over-par 289 after shooting par-72 Friday.

Willis fired a final-round 73 to finish at 291.

"It was close the whole way through," said Newman-Bennett, referring to the final round.

Newman-Bennett, the second- and third-round leader, held a one-stroke edge over Willis to begin the final 18 holes. Willis took over the lead on the first hole but Newman-Bennett got it back shortly after. The two golfers were never more than two strokes apart.

A gallery of more than 300 people followed the two leaders around much of the course and cheered loudly whenever the Kelowna golfer made a good shot.

On Wednesday, Newman-Bennett led B.C. to the interprovincial team championship.

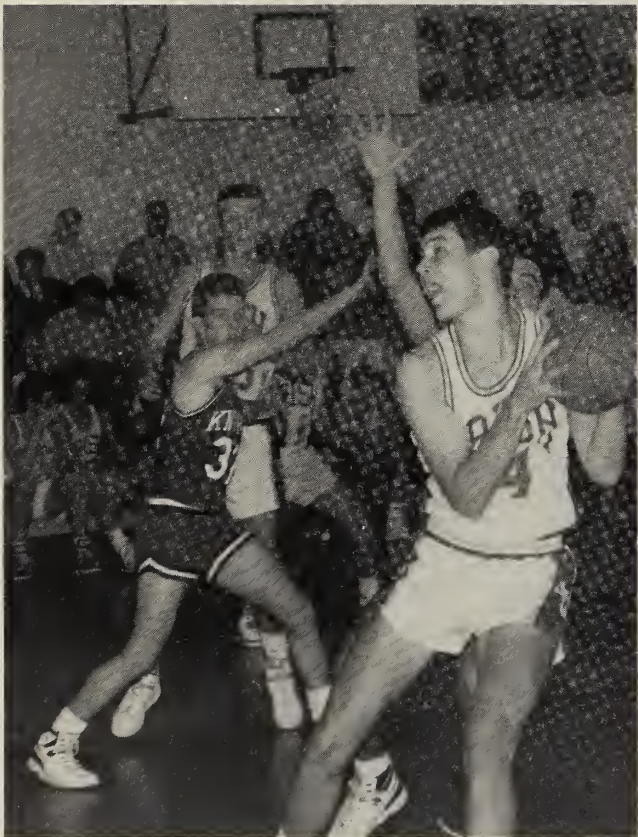

See page 9 for another story and photos.

INTRAMURALS: V.C. STYLE!!!

Why Intramurals? Are you a closet athlete who, for some reason, cannot or will not participate in the school's major team sports? Do you strive for good, clean, steroid-free competition in the "alternative" sports-like indoor soccer, volleyball and street hockey? Is winning grade level trophies and certificates of Intramural Achievement right down your alley? Do you scream, "Awesome!" when Mr. "Ace" Accili saves a blistering shot in the Match of the Century? If so, then you live our motto, "Don't be a nine to three type: GET INVOLVED!"

It 'twas a party! Splitting their time between covering international summit meetings and covering the Voice office with lude pictures and graffiti, the Voice staff did manage to piece together a record four issues in the past ten months. At considerable expense to the school and much to the chagrin of V.C.'s school manager, the Voice received a massive tummy-tuck when it was professionally printed for the first time in the school's history, thereby joining the ranks of the other reputable school's rags. As the senior staff retires from the Voice to take on less demanding positions with papers such as the Globe And Mail and the Washington Post, it is hoped that those members who remain behind will carry on the tradition of denying any journalistic integrity and above all, refusing to conform to the norm.

Genies en Herbe - Reach For the Top

This year is the first year of Vancouver College to participate in the show Genies en Herbe. It is a game show played in French. The participants were: Patrick Masson - gr 10, Vikram Gupta, Mike Yaptinchay, and Francois Ertl - gr 11. The team did very well in the first game defeating Templeton 255-155. They were eliminated by Queen Elizabeth School in the second round. With this experience behind them, next year's team looks forward to a successful competition.

SPECIAL EVENTS

WALK-A-THON '88

As well as being blessed with good weather, this year's Walk-a-thon was conducted with good spirit by the participants and was, I think, one of our best ever!

The Walk-a-thon took place earlier this year, which limited the time available for collection of sponsors. This perhaps, explains our falling below our expectations at the total contributions collected this year.

Many thanks to Mrs. Audrey Cheeseman for her handling of the elementary school Walk-a-thon organization, Mr. Steve Rogers for handling the middle school and Bro. O'Niell for handling the senior high and finances for the Walk-a-thon.

Special thanks, of course, to the participants for both collecting sponsors, conducting proper behavior on the walk and for the walking itself.

AUCTION DINNER - A GREAT SUCCESS!

The Annual Dinner-Dance-Auction was held on November 5, 1988 and a sensational evening was enjoyed by all who attended. Financially the evening was a great success as $25,000 was raised. Special thanks goes to Mr. Jim Harrison and his committee: Doug Heppburn, Randy and Gayle Doherty, Pru Christensen, Evelyn O'Connor, Chris and Elaine Ryan, Chris Lam, Wayne Duzita and Carolyne Russell . . . The food was delicious and the dancing and music most enjoyable. See you again next year!!!

V.C. STAGE BAND

This year will be the last that the V.C. Stage Band will be under the direction of Mr. Gordon Olson as he will be retiring after forty years of service. The Stage Band has accomplished several above average achievements in their competitions which have taken them across Canada. This year they were invited to compete in the Nationals in Toronto. The band consists of students from grades 7 to 12. This means that they will compete in the Intermediate Category. Competition at this level is very intense and requires much dedication from each and every member. Although the Band has been a "quiet" representative of Vancouver College, they certainly represented the school well and showed true "College Pride" wherever they performed.

TOUR TO JAPAN

This year Vancouver College organized another trip for Easter Vacation only this time it was to Japan. They spent 10 days travelling around Japan and 4 more days spending money in Hong Kong.

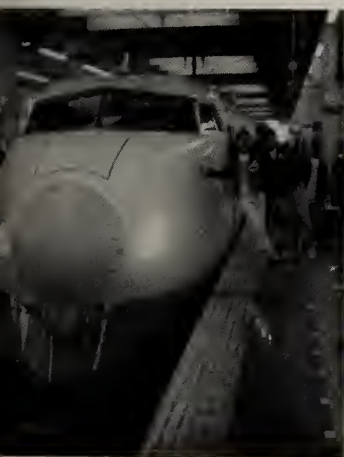

All the students saw many places, made a countless number of friends, learned a little Japanese, experienced a different culture and came back very well dressed. Surprisingly enough there weren't too many complaints thanks to Mr. Bell who made months of preparation and lessened the culture shock.

A lot of memories were made such as: our constant echoing of, "Hey Buddee!", crazy left side drivers and cyclist, chopsticks, certain Australian girls (too numerous to mention), trains, nights in Hong Kong, shopping, getting lost in Hiroshima, shopping, food, shopping, a pre-tentious mother and two sons, a certain Inspector Gadget, our groovy Pacific Rim tour shirts, and last, but not least, our loving and caring host families, whom all of us hope to keep in contact with.

On our departure, many emotions were expressed. There were the traditional hugs and kisses, the exchanging of addresses, and the last wave of the hand. We were glad to come home but we will always remember our time in the Orient. Special thanks Pappa son, Mr. Dan Isaac, and Mama son, Mrs. Victoria Naas.

OTHER EVENTS

Our school has many more special events such as these: 1. When everyone gets together at a game. 2. Whenever we have to listen to our president. 3. When our committees get together and try and organize dances. 4. When the elementary get together for dinners. 5. or something more off the wall like the pasta bridge building contest held by the physics department. Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence.

Talent will not.
Nothing is more common than unsuccessful
men with talent.

Genius will not.
Unsuccessful Genius is almost a proverb.

Education will not.
The world is full of educated derelicts.

Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent.

The slogan "press on" has solved, and always will solve, the problems of the human race.

This could well apply to us all.

To each of the graduates
of Vancouver College
I extend a sincere wish for future happiness. I trust you will enjoy your chosen fields.
